Old-Fashioned Fun Day

Fun is promised for everyone at the third annual Old-Fashioned Fun Day featuring a ranch rodeo, Saturday, Oct. 6, at the Northeast Kansas Heritage Complex, south of Holton, announced Deb Dillner, secretary of the Jackson County Fair Association, event sponsor.

Advertised on 580 WIBW and The BIG 94.5 Country, activities kick-off at noon in the complex, Highway 75, and 214th Road.

"Working ranch teams compete in rodeo events similar to work done by cowboys for centuries, and there'll be activities for all," Dillner promised.

Supper is at 5 o'clock, and a dance to "Crossroads" follows.

Farm Heritage Celebration

Southeast Kansas Farm History Center at Tolen Creek Park in Parsons will host the fifth annual Farm Heritage Celebration, Friday and Saturday, Oct. 5-6.

"Our celebration will feature a 1890s stone house and farmstead, a variety of living history demonstrations, vintage agricultural displays from the 1890s through the late 1950s and more," explained Kari West, promotion coordinator, noting this year's theme is a tribute to both "Horses and Horsepower."

Advertised on 580 WIBW and The BiG 94.5 Country, displays include antique tractors from 1938, and classic tractors from 1939 to 1947, with owners invited to display them and other agriculture implements.

Information is available from West at 620-421-7030 or kwest@parsonsk.com

Morris County Ranch Rodeo

The annual Morris County Invitational Fall Ranch Rodeo, sponsored by the Morris County Youth Rodeo Association, is Sunday, Oct. 7, 1 o'clock, at the Council Grove arena.

Advertised on 580 WIBW, activities include a Youth Ranch Rodeo Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, with entries accepted until starting time. Entry fees and prizes for the three-member youth team competition are sponsored by the Charles Blosser Memorial.

A calf scramble is planned during the afternoon rodeo with cowboys from throughout the Flint Hills competing on four-member teams in events like work done on their ranches.
