

World-Class Entertainment For July Jubilee Saturday At Banner Creek Reservoir

Independence Day will have come and gone by then, but there'll still be plenty of entertainment for the July Jubilee, Saturday, July 7, at Banner Creek Reservoir near Holton.

Advertised and promoted on The BIG 94.5 Country and 580 WIBW, July Jubilee is an annual summer attraction coordinated by the Holton/Jackson County Chamber of Commerce with Jamie Claycamp as executive director.

Banner Creek Reservoir is the ideal location for July Jubilee with free admission, free parking and campsites available along with concessions and vendors.

An admission of $10 will be charged for Joey+Rory, along with Tyler Ahlgren and The Randel Stueve Band.

An entertainer at The BIG 94.5 Country Stampede, Joey+Rory is an American country music duo composed of singer-songwriters Rory Lee Feek and Joey Martin Feek, husband and wife. Joey+Rory have ties to Atchison and Highland, where Rory grew up, before moving to Nashville.

The Randel Stueve Band, with Devin Randel and Sam Stueve, and John Johnson and Jeff Nider, started in Frankfort and is based at Manhattan.

Tyler Ahlgren, a 2012 Jackson Heights High School graduate, is a multi-talented and versatile entertainer.

Following the show, what has been described as "fabulous fireworks" are scheduled.

Santa Fe Trail Working Ranch Rodeo Planned This Weekend At Council Grove

It's rodeo time this weekend at Council Grove.

The 26th annual Santa Fe Trail Ranch Rodeo is set for Friday and Saturday evenings, July 6-7, beginning at 7 o'clock in the arena located 1-1/2 miles east of Council Grove on Highway 56.

"This year's rodeo will again be sanctioned by the Working Ranch Cowboys Association," according to Clay Wilson, president of the Morris County Youth Rodeo Association, rodeo sponsor.

Fifteen teams, each composed of four working ranch cowboys, from Kansas and other states have pre-entered to participate in this year's rodeo.

Advertised on The BIG 94.5 Country and 580 WIBW, the rodeo is featured on the www.kansasagnetworks.com website calendar directed to by 30 stations served by the Kansas Agriculture Network.

Events are to include ranch bronc riding, wild cow milking, stray gathering, calf branding and team penning.

A trade show with vendors selling western tack, clothing, accessories and home décor will be in conjunction with the rodeo both days.

There will also be a junior ranch rodeo on Saturday morning at 10 o'clock including team penning, ribbon roping and calf branding with entries open until starting time.

Additional information about any of the activities is available from Wilson at 785-466-1359 or by going to the website: www.mocoyouthrodeo.com.
